

HOME RENTAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM

The Rental Rehabilitation Program

The City of Amsterdam is operating a housing rehabilitation program for rental properties located anywhere within the City limits.

Program Description

The purpose of the program is to improve the quality of rental housing in the City, while maintaining the affordability of the rental units to low and moderate income tenants. This program is funded through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development under the HOME Program, and administered through the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal. To qualify, the occupants of the rental units must be low income as indicated by the chart below. The program provides technical assistance in determining the repairs that need to be made to the property. A rehabilitation specialist will work with the property owner to determine the best way to improve a property and assist in hiring of contractors to do the work. In addition, the landlord must agree to limit rents charged to tenants, and agree to several other conditions which are spelled out in more detail later in this application package.

Financial Assistance

The program will provide a grant of up to 75% of the cost of rehabilitation of the rental units, with a maximum grant of $25,000 per rental unit. A ten year mortgage lien is filed on the property to ensure compliance with HOME program guidelines.

4	$34,440	8	$45,480

4. Rents must be limited to a level that is considered affordable to low and moderate income tenants during the ten year regulatory period. The following are maximum rents, including the cost of utilities.

High HOME	580	623	699	884	958	1,102	1,245

5. A written lease must be used for all tenants. The form of the lease must be approved by the Urban Renewal Agency, and must contain certain language mandated by HUD and the New York State Division of Housing. As a alternative, landlords can use the standard form lease which can be provided by the Urban Renewal Agency.
6. No tenants can be evicted in anticipation of funding under this program. Any tenant displaced from an apartment can only be evicted for cause, such as non-payment of rent or some other serious lease violation. Tenants displaced for other reasons may be eligible for moving expenses and replacement housing costs under the Federal Uniform Relocation Act, and landlords will be liable for those expenses, which can run into the thousands of dollars for each displaced tenant.
7. If the property is sold within the ten year regulatory period, the grant must be repaid to the Urban Renewal Agency.
8. Scope of work shall be based in inspections undertaken by the Urban Renewal Agency. All rehabilitation work must be undertaken through a competitive bid process. All units must comply with all local and State building codes, was well as HUD Housing Quality Standards at completion of the rehab process.
